Wants 'Em our or the Warl-The Journal of this morning, in "treating" of the Harper's Farry insurrection, says:-

Supire Railding, Third at , Seeth side bet .. Bain & Jefferss There was a larger crowd present here to-day than we have ever before seen at upon those actually connected with the insurprention at Harper's Perry, and none of those who have had any connection with it, who by any means, have given it sid and comfort, should be suffered to go unpanabled. Any man who knew of the plot and failed to make use of his knowledge to frustrate the designs of the traitors is varily guilty of the ourrages, committed, and should not be allowed to any cape scot free.

There was a larger crowd present here to-day than we have ever before seen at any County Fair. Prople from every quarter, of all ages, sine and sex, exhibited them selves in all the fashions of the day.

The expected bailoon ascension of Belman, and the display of fireworks by Diehl, added much to the attractions, and it is supposed that twenty thousand people were present.
